

WE Rate Dogs

Insights and analysis of @dog_rates twitter account data

Mohammed Ahmed Moahmmed

14.12.2020

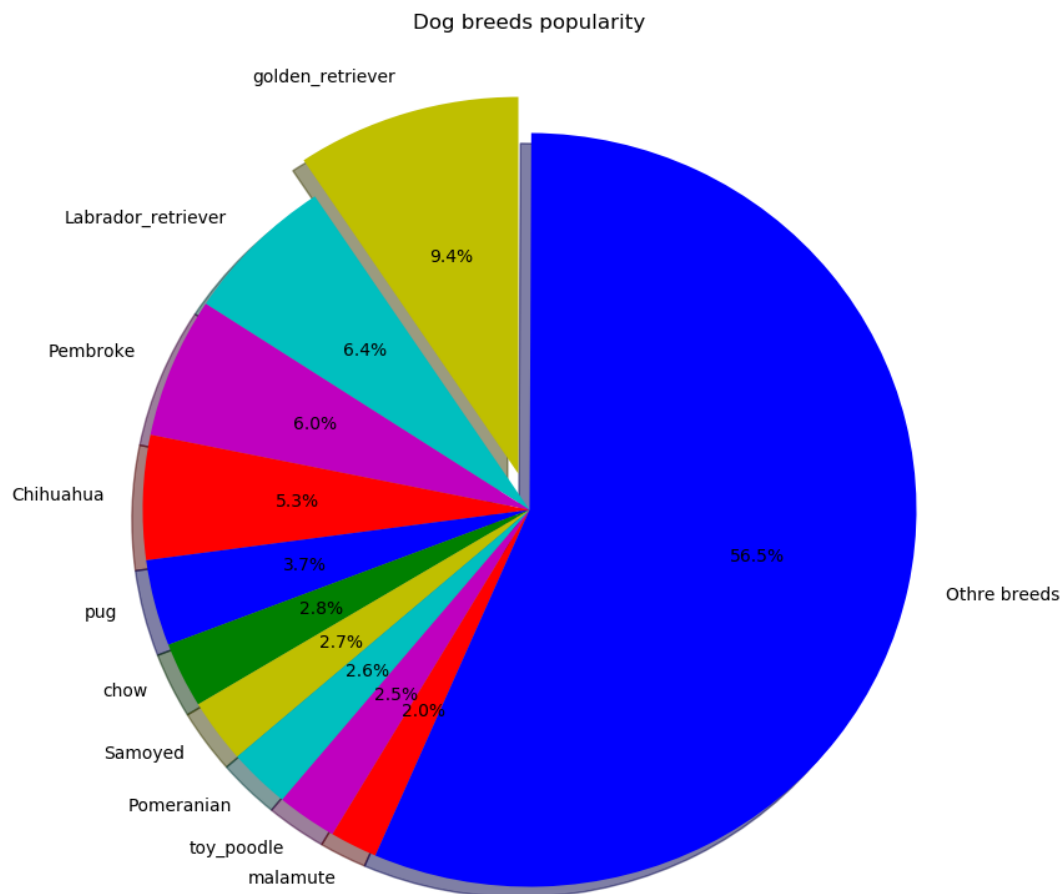

Data Analysis Professional Nanodegree Program Student

INTRODUCTION

We rate dogs @dogs_rates is a popular twitter account that mainly rates people's dogs using humorous comments about the dogs' pictures in the tweet and giving each dog picture a unique rating of some number out of 10, well it is almost guaranteed to be more than 10 because all dogs are good boys, so let's discover together some interesting insights and facts that was evaluated from tweets data for this unique account from the years 2015 to 2017.

What were the most popular dog breeds submitted in this period (2015 - 2017) ?

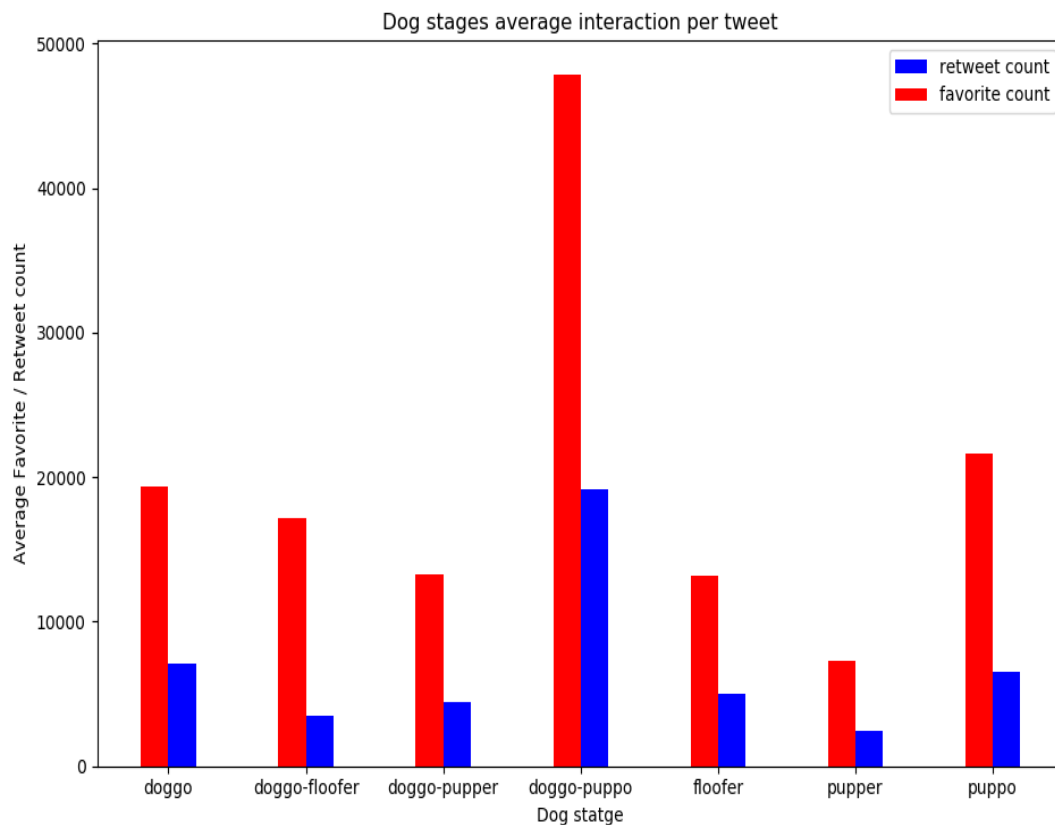

Will most of the followers of this account are US citizens so surely we saw this coming, it is of course the golden retriever.

In the above bar chart you can also see the top 10 dog breeds submitted.

What are the Most loved of each stage of dogs as per the special dog stage system of the twitter account?

A dog usually have one of the following stages in his life : (as categorized by the account owners) [doggo, pupper, puppo, and floof(er)] or a combination of any of the mentioned, so let us see how these stages rank and what are most popular and loved ones.

As we can see a dog in the stage [doggo-puppo] attracts the highest averages.

Interaction with the account over time.

This will indicate the growth of the account popularity based on the retweets and favorites average counts per month, as we can see in the plot the interaction with the account was increasing monthly.

